GREYCOURT

February 28, 2018

Greycourt is pleased to announce that The Press Club of Western Pennsylvania has nominated Greg Curtis, our Chairman and Founder, for a 2018 Golden Quill Award. This annual competition recognizes professional excellence in written, photographic, broadcast and online journalism in Western Pennsylvania and also nearby counties in Ohio and West Virginia.

The nomination is for Greg's weekly investment focused blog, which launched in 2013. For more information on Greg's blog please visit: http://gregorydcurtis.com/blog/.

In addition to his blog, Greg is the author of three investment books: Family Capital: Working with Wealthy Families to Manage Their Money Across Generations (2016), The Stewardship of Wealth: Successful Private Wealth Management for Investors and their Advisors (2013) and Creative Capital: Managing Private Wealth in a Complex World (2004).

Greg is also an award-winning poet, having won the Academy of American Poets Prize and been a finalist for the Eve of St. Agnes Award (Peter Viereck, judge) among others. His volume of poetry, Working for a Living, appeared in 2014.

In 2013, Greg received the Thought Leader of the Decade Award from the Family Wealth Alliance for his many contributions to the intellectual capital of the wealth management industry.
