

GREYCOURT

Greycourt Chairman Gregory Curtis Honored by Worth Magazine Top 250 Wealth Advisor List

PITTSBURGH, PA – Greycourt announced today that Worth Magazine has selected Chairman Gregory Curtis as one of its Top 250 Wealth Advisors. The annual rankings, which will be published in Worth’s October issue, are based on expertise, insight, trustworthiness and commitment to clients’ needs.

“Each year, Worth recognizes an elite group of individuals for their expertise, integrity and dedication to the field of wealth management. The Top 250 list represents months of extensive research and rigorous analysis. Wealth advisors from throughout the United States vie for inclusion, yet only a select few are chosen,” said Associate Publisher Andrew Pedersen. “Those included on the list represent the pinnacle of the wealth management profession.”

As one of the largest and best-known open architecture firms in the United States, Greycourt is a provider of comprehensive financial advisory services to wealthy families and select endowments. Headquartered in Pittsburgh, Greycourt has additional offices located in Charlotte, North Carolina; Houston, Texas; and Portland, Oregon.

“We are certainly honored to be recognized and appreciate the continued support of our clients and friends in the industry,” said Curtis.

Curtis founded Greycourt ten years ago, after serving as president of a family office for the Mellon family. He is the author of Creative Capital: Managing Private Wealth in a Complex World, a step-by-step guide to the management of significant taxable assets. Curtis has also written numerous white papers on investment topics for substantial private investors and endowed institutions. He currently chairs the board of directors of The Pittsburgh Foundation and serves on many investment committees for private families and endowed institutions, including Carnegie Mellon University, The Pittsburgh Foundation, St. John’s College, and the Winchester Thurston School. He holds a BA degree from Dartmouth College, a JD degree from Harvard Law School and is a graduate of The Endowment Institute at Harvard Business School.

For further information, please visit www.greycourt.com. Headquarters address is 607 College Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15232, telephone 412.361.0100.

###