

GREYCOURT

The Family Wealth Alliance Honors Gregory Curtis with Best of the Decade Award for Thought Leadership

Pittsburgh, PA (October 22, 2013) – Greycourt announced today that their Chairman and Founder Greg Curtis is the recipient of the Thought Leadership Best of the Decade award from The Family Wealth Alliance. Honorees were recognized at The Family Wealth Alliance Fall Forum and 10th Anniversary Gala in Chicago on October 17, 2013.

“We were pleased to recognize Greycourt’s exceptional accomplishments and leadership with this award. The Best of the Decade Awards are truly unique, recognizing leadership and excellence over a decade or longer,” said Thomas R. Livergood, CEO and Founder of The Family Wealth Alliance. “We are very proud to honor these outstanding individuals and firms.”

Mr. Curtis founded Greycourt over 25 years ago. Prior to founding Greycourt, he served for many years as president of a family office for a branch of the Mellon family and as president of the Laurel Foundation. Over the years he has served on many investment committees for family and institutional investors. He is the author of two books focused on successful wealth management for high net worth investors: Creative Capital (published in 2004) and The Stewardship of Wealth (published in 2012). He has written over fifty white papers on a variety of investment topics and publishes a weekly blog.

As one of the premier independent investment advisory firms in the United States, Greycourt is a provider of comprehensive investment advisory services to wealthy families and select endowments. Headquartered in Pittsburgh, Greycourt has additional offices located in Portland, Oregon, Houston, Texas and Minneapolis, Minnesota.

For more information, please contact Kristi Combs, Director of Marketing, at 503.797.6411 or kcombs@greycourt.com.