Tracking User Behavior

Greycourt & Co., Inc. (“Greycourt”) may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within Greycourt’s website to determine what Greycourt services are the most popular. This data is used to understand user behavior that indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area, thereby enabling the firm to create more customized content.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Greycourt. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Greycourt website.

Use of Cookies

The Greycourt website may use “cookies” to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Greycourt services or websites you visit.
